

To the presiding judge,

I am making an appeal to my court case Friday. I am honest and do not have the money to pay for this appeal, but in the name of justice please hear me out. Thank you.

I was accused of kicking Kassandra Somers. She brought 2 witnesses, both which claimed they saw everything. One said I definitely never kicked Kassandra.
The other said I kicked her hard 3 times. Kassandra said I kicked her once with little force. The Ames Tribune club flat report's what somebody called or had no mention of kicking her - which seems like they would have mentioned.

They were upset at me because I was singing music about freeing animals inside the fast food restaurant and they are seeking vindication.
I am a peaceful vegetarian and did not kick Kasandra.
The judge took the position that I kicked her 3 times and she forgot about 2 of them.

Please help. I don't want assault tagged to my name.
That simply is not me.

Thank you. Sincerely,
Alex Wilson
